SANTA & COLE

Made of solid white alabaster, as an illuminated grail, Zeleste is reminiscent of Barcelona's night life, with a story that takes us back to the early seventies.

A year after Red May, Ángel Jové and Santiago Roqueta created the Zeleste lamp, named after the bar where it was designed for. When crossing the velvet curtain in the bar, an element unified the space: the Zeleste lamp, promoter of intimacy, in front of an amalgam of furniture without owner.

Inspired by an Art Déco design, Zeleste shares the spirit of all works by Snark, the design editor company owned by Santiago Roqueta. In 1987, Santa & Cole acquired Snark's historical collection and launched a new range with the same name, the Snark collection, which included this lamp and its sister Babel, also in our catalogue.
